The President and General Sherman on Virginia Affairs.

On Tuesday last, says the Richmond Dispatch, a prominent Virginian, "being" in Washington, called upon the President and General Sherman, and found them both willing to converse about, and much interested in, Virginia politics. The senatorship being mentioned, General Grant said he had no desire to interfere in any way with the election, but thought several of the most prominent gentlemen named would be acceptable to Congress. The name of General Williams was particularly mentioned, and the President remarked that he thought the election of General Williams would be satisfactory to everybody, and paid a high tribute to the character of that gentleman. He seemed to regard him as the leading candidate for senatorial honors.

Our informant states that General Sherman—who is, by the way, an intimate friend of General Williams—expresses himself as confident that Virginia will soon be restored, as she ought to be, to all her rights and privileges as a member of the Union. Other prominent officials expressed the same opinion, and seemed to regard the opposition of the Radical minority as in no way formidable to the hopes of the Liberals. This is cheering news.

CURIOUS PHENOMENON.—A SUBTERRANEAN WATER CAVERN.—On Monday morning, Oct. 6th, the Eastman tunnel, a half mile long, being excavated for the purpose of obtaining water on Nicolet Island, pierced a sunken water cavern in the island below the level of the river. The gates at the head of the tunnel were closed, but the rush of water could not be arrested. Early Tuesday morning a large whirlpool near the shore of the island was discovered disclosing the mouth of the cavern. All efforts yesterday to close this hole by rafts, cribs, trees, bales of hay, &c., proved fruitless and the river is making a tremendous effort to cut a new channel for itself.

The mills on Hennepin Island are in danger, as the ground is caving in from the passage of water beneath. Men are at work night and day constructing a coffer dam around the mouth of the whirlpool. If necessary a section of the dam will be torn out to lower the water, which is very high.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune lately interviewed Thomas Carlyle, and tried to draw from him some compliment to Radical progress (so-called) in this country:

"Assured as the Lord reigns, you are rushing down to hell with desperate velocity, the scum of the world has got possession of your country, and nothing can save you from the devil's clutches. Not perhaps," cried he, raising his voice to its shrillest notes, "a hell burning with material fire and brimstone, but the wide weltering fiery chaos of corruption in high places, and the misuse of the people. A fine Republic that!"

Nine years ago the military department of this government was kept up at an annual expense of about ten millions of dollars, and ten thousand soldiers were looked upon as an unnecessarily large army. The late war closed four years ago, but we have a peace establishment that numbers about fifty thousand men, kept up at an annual cost of fifty millions. When the people are ground to the earth with taxation, what justification is there for this enormous and unnecessary expenditure? And is not Radicalism an expensive institution?—Wash. Express.

Poor Corbin. He is the unhappiest man in New York. He is much more unhappy than the wickedest man there is wicked. It is perhaps a misfortune that he is the President's brother-in-law. If he were not, the newspapers would let him alone. As it is, they are eternally hammering at him about his complicity in that gold swindling business. The New York Sun can never be convinced that "old Corb" was not at the bottom of the affair.

The Richmond Whig asserts that "The idea that is the Virginia mind is the restoration of the State to the Union, with a view to the final settlement of disturbing questions, so that we may have political and social tranquility and material resuscitation."

Speech of Ex-President Fillmore.

On Monday ex-President Fillmore had a handsome reception at Louisville. In response to an address of welcome he said:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of Louisville, this reception is an honor and a pleasure which I had no reason to expect. Were I a candidate for some high political office, or did I come with the prestige of official power, I might account for this assembly here to-day. Nearly twenty years have elapsed since I have taken part in political matters. I belong to no party, but I do belong to my country, [applause] and I cannot express to you the gratification I feel to-day at seeing in prospect a deliberative body gathered from every State in the Union, the Union restored, that patriotic and glorious Union which has been endangered, but I trust not lost. [Applause.] Fifteen years ago I visited your city for the first and last time, and had I been placed in it to-day unawares, I could not have recognized it. Trade, there is the grand old river flowing along its edge; here is the great natural obstruction of the falls which has placed it with the great commercial cities of the country, but now when I see your splendid houses and your beautiful streets, all seems to be changed. It would seem as though a magic hand had passed over it. How you could be so prosperous under all the vicissitudes of the past ten years is unaccountable, but I congratulate you on your good fortune and your prosperity. Kentucky, if there be a State in the Union except that which gave me birth, is the State of all others I have learned to honor. [Applause.]

I knew your illustrious citizen, who did honor to his State, as he did to all the Union, and who now sleeps within your border. I need not say I allude to Henry Clay. [Applause.] He was my early and best devoted friend, and I was his, and I can never revert to his memory without reverence and respect. I beg your pardon, gentlemen, I came here with no prepared address; the time has long since passed since I have attempted such a thing. I came here simply to thank you for this unexpected reception and honor, and to express the hope that you may continue to be prosperous, and that our country may be one and united forever. [Applause.] Pardon me, therefore, for not adding to this address, and for contenting myself by simply thanking you for this honor. [Applause.]

A company has been formed in Paris to carry out a rather novel idea in the way of advertising. The company takes a lease of one window in the second or third story of a house in a prominent street or boulevard. From dusk till after midnight a transparency, brightly lit up, on a sea green ground, sets forth the advertisement. You can arrange either for display once a week or a whole week, &c., alternately in any of the windows in the several quarters possessed by the company.

It is said that during her recent trip through France, Eugenie endured thirty-one speeches, twenty-three receptions and presentations, eight grand dinners and banquets; two reviews, about two hundred and fifty gun salutes from the fleet alone, four displays of fireworks, and over eight thousand petitions. And yet she still lives! If this sort of thing goes on much longer, she will pass into history as the cast-iron Empress.

The prophet who reported as having foretold that a terrible earthquake [high tide, &c.] would take place on the 7th of October wishes to correct the date assigned for the fulfillment of his prophecy. He meant to have said the 17th of September, for by advices received yesterday from St. Thomas he ascertains that there was an earthquake on that island on the day last specified, which he identifies as the earthquake alluded to in his prophecy.

Mandy Anderson, a colored man, publishes the following card in the Phœnix: "I want to return my thanks to Dr. R. W. Gibbs for his kind attention to me, during a long spell of sickness, caused by being injured while engaged in some work for Dr. Wheeler, of Cincinnati; also to Drs. Darby and Talley, for their kindness to an unfortunate colored man. I find our own people the best friends of the colored man."

The ingenuity of Connecticut has risen above the invention of wooden nutmegs. An exchange says that at the "wooden wedding" of Mr. and Mrs. Marvins McCall, of Bozrahville, in that State, the other day, one of the presents was a bridal loaf frosted with great care; but on attempting to cut it for distribution among the guests, it was found to be a large wooden bowl fastened upon the head of a flour barrel.

Cheraw is getting greedy about rail roads. Not satisfied with the Cheraw and Darlington, Cheraw and Salisbury, North Carolina Central, and Chatham Road, they now want a road to Charlotte also, and had a meeting on the 4th instant, at which several resolutions were passed with a view to such consummation. Charleston Courier.

The Southern Commercial Convention.

LOUISVILLE, October 15.—The Convention met at 10 o'clock A. M. After prayer, the Committee on Permanent Organization reported as follows:

For Secretary, Charles M. Thurston; and one Vice President and one Assistant Secretary from each State. The Committee recommended that the Convention appoint the following standing committees, composed of one member from each State represented:

- 1st, On Southern Pacific Railroad.
- 2nd, On Railroads Generally.
- 3rd, On Direct Trade with Europe.
- 4th, On Emigration.
- 5th, On Finance and Banking.
- 6th, On Manufactures and Mining.
- 7th, Mississippi Levee Improvements.
- 8th, Tennessee River and Improvements.
- 9th, River Navigation, Canals and Improvements.
- 10th, Agriculture.
- 11th, Continuous Water Line Communication between the Mississippi River and Atlantic Seaboard.
- 12th, Removal of Obstructions to Cheap and Easy Outlet through the Mississippi and Gulf.
- 13th, Imports.

On motion of Mr. Allard, the subject of the protection of labor and reduction of taxation was made an order of business.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says: "The Natural History Society of Pittsfield, Mass., have a button, stated to have been found at Perry's Peak, where it is supposed to have been dropped by Ham, the son of Noah, while leaning over the taffrail of the ark in a fit of sea-sickness."

The Augusta Constitutionalist says that work is progressing very favorably on the Port Royal Railroad; the rails have been shipped from New York, and will be laid from the junction of the Charleston and Savannah Road to Allendale by January next; and at that rate expects to see the road completed to Augusta by next May.

An exchange says: "An old man in Crawford county, Pennsylvania, called 'Crazy Odell,' has for twenty years, with necessary intervals for sleeping and eating, walked in sunshine and storm, from Meadville to Penn., a distance of twenty miles. No matter how hard it rains, snows, or blows, he continues his incessant tramp, tramp. The old man imagines himself the Duke of Wellington, and is always marching to the battle-field of Waterloo."

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Mr. Thomas Moore, a worthy citizen from the northern part of the county, was robbed last Saturday night of about $40,000. We have not heard the particulars of the affair, but learn it occurred near Paisley's Bridge, and that the parties were negroes.

CONVENTION OF ENGINEERS.—A grand international Convention of locomotive engineers will be held at Baltimore on the 20th of October. Mr. L. B. Lyons is the regularly appointed delegate from the Division in this city to represent its interests in this Convention.—Wil. Journal.

THE ALLMAN CASE.—The Counsel for the prisoner, Allman, tried last week for the murder of Lassiter, moved, yesterday, for the discharge of the prisoner, on the ground that he ought not to be put in peril twice for the same offense. The Court refused to grant the motion, and an appeal was taken to be admitted to bail in the sum of $2,500.—Sentinel.

ADJOURNED.—The regular Fall term of Wake Superior Court adjourned yesterday, (Tuesday) after calling over a thousand cases on the civil docket, on some five or six hundred of which judgment was entered, referred or dismissed. His Honor, from his manner of retiring from the Bench, was considerably tired of the work.—Sentinel.

ARREST OF FEMALE THIEVES.—Lieut. Montague, on yesterday, arrested and lodged in jail two notorious female thieves, known as Big Emma Johnson and Julia Taylor, charged with stealing goods from the door of Mr. Rotter's dry goods store on Sycamore street. These women, it appears, went into the store to purchase some dress trimmings, and when they came out they seized and carried off a piece of poplin containing some twenty-five or more yards. This they carried to a colored seamstress on Bank street named Henny Patterson, and left it with her to be made into dresses, where it was recovered by the officer. When arrested, they looked as innocent as angels, and denied all knowledge of the goods, but the lie was proven on them by the seamstress who said they had given her the poplin. Another dress pattern was also found by Lieut. Montague, the owner of which is unknown. These women are notorious characters, and have both been several times in court for larcenies committed by them.—Ex.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Fall and its Dangers.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. For the flowers, the foliage and the herbs of the field there is no help. Their time has come and die they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the months of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To recruit his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the dangers generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give edge to his appetite with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power to make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes, this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the door to all maladies. Vigor is the chief defence of the human structure against all causes of disease, and Hostetter's Bitter is may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments of men.

THE ADVANCE.

A Weekly Family Journal.

DEVOTED TO

The Farm, The Garden, The

Workshop, Domestic Economy and General Progress in North Carolina.

The undersigned proposes to publish in the City of Raleigh, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained, a Weekly Family Journal, adapted to the wants of the people of North Carolina, who are engaged in the cultivation of the soil in all its branches, the improvement of our manufactures, our machinery, our mechanical skill, and all the material interests of the State.

In the conduct of the paper he expects to secure the aid of scientific and practical men to instruct and interest his readers. His object will be to make it eminently practical, and useful to all classes.

It will be printed in good style, on good paper of large size at $2. per year, in advance. The first number will appear about the 1st of November, or as soon thereafter as the patronage will justify. Subscribers will be expected to pay as soon as they receive the first number.

The undersigned solicits the aid of his many friends in the State to obtain subscribers and forward the lists at an early day.

Services to-morrow, morning and evening.

Yesterday dawned cloudy, and though at times the sun tried to pierce the dark clouds, his genial rays were overcome, and we are experiencing that kind of weather which always precedes the "wet king". Notwithstanding, however, the rain, the streets were full of wagons and business seemed as brisk as usual.

We are pleased to see such great improvement in the "Charlotte Cornet Band," since its organization. Its members have labored hard for its success and deserve much credit. Occasionally the citizens are favored with sweet music. Continue to practice gentlemen, for music is no mean treat on any occasion.

We have received a copy of the Premium List of the first Annual Fair, of Cape Fear Agricultural Association, to be held in Wilmington on the 18, 17, 18, and 19th of November next. No doubt there will be many competitors for the various premiums offered for live stock, agricultural implements &c., &c.

The Post Master General has established a Post Office at Grantville (between New-Berne and Bay River, Craven County), and appointed William Grant Postmaster.

What kin is he to U. S.?—Car. Times

Judging from the Pictorial, sheep skins and shawls are in demand at Greensboro, as those fortunate enough to have one, are relieved of it if he happens to turn his back. Send to Charlotte Bro. Patriot, and get a new one.

The various Railroads will pass freight free to and from the Fair, and passengers half price. All articles will be transferred from the depot to the grounds without cost to exhibitors. Food will be furnished gratuitously to all Stock entered for a premium.

Members' Badges, which are not transferable, may be obtained at the gate, or at the office of the Secretary or Treasurer.

J. BRINTON SMITH,
Corresponding Secretary.

Mother wants to know if you won't please to lead her your pearly kettle, 'cause she wants to do up some apple sauce. 'The last time we lent it to your mother she preserved it so effectively that we have not seen it since.' 'Well you needn't be so sure about your old kettle. Guess it was full of holes when we borrowed it, and mother wouldn't have troubled you again, only we see'd you bring home a new one.'

The Bishops of the Episcopal Church, called together for the purpose of electing a Missionary Bishop of Arkansas, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Bishop Lay, will assemble in Calvary Church, New York City, on Thursday, October 14.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The belle of New Orleans is a pretty piece of Jeff Davis. A New York letter to the ring her soon.

The Canadian ladies are said to crowd Prince Arthur's apartment when he is away to get a sight of his clothes.

Robert Bonner sold 375,000 copies of the New York ledger issued last week—the largest circulation in the world.

A New York paper says: "There is only one thing that cannot be got in New York—an excellent dinner at a low price."

The doll for the Sultan's daughter, bought in Paris by the Viceroy of Egypt, cost, with its dressing, jewels, carriage, &c., $47,000 in gold.

Boston is going to try a new invention, by which all the street lamps in the city can be lighted in four minutes.

A Cincinnati man has wagered $100 that he can carry an anvil, weighing 700 pounds, seven miles without resting. Oh!

A man who went from New York to Shanghai in 1861, consuming 240 days in the journey, has just returned in 31 days and 12 hours, running time.

A Boston paper advises Wendell Phillips to be less temperate in his living and more temperate in his language.

A reward is offered for an item of military intelligence from Cuba which contains the essential element of truth.

It is again proposed to make New Orleans a "walled city," to keep out Mississippi river invasions.

San Francisco threatens to mob the man who predicts another earthquake. The people are shaky on that subject.

A negro camp-meeting in New Jersey broke up Sunday night with great enthusiasm and a row, in which one man was killed and several wounded.

The people may want light on the Byron imbroglio, but they refuse to be guided by Mrs. Stowe's scandal.

Any one can import nitro-glycerine into England if he is willing to go to jail for a year as the penalty.

An enthusiastic New England lady wishes to wipe out the defeat of the Harvards, by having a crew of American girls challenge an equal number of English girls to row on American waters.

"Do you call this a trunk?" growled a dejected porter. "It only needs a lightningrod to be mistaken for a boarding-house."

A group of Eriny while hunting for rabbits, came across a jackass in the woods, and shot him. "By me soul and St. Patrick," he exclaimed, "I've killed the father of all rabbits."

MR. GEORGE PEABODY.—The New York Republic says that Mr. George Peabody will spend the coming winter in the south of France, at the villa of W. W. Corcoran, who sails for Europe in November.

In Cincinnati some thieves broke into a wigmakers and stole $5,500 worth of wigs and chignons. If the physicians of that city will keep a sharp look-out for their itch-patients, the rogues will probably be caught.

A Washington letter tells us that "M. Catacazy, the Russian Minister, has taken the fine house on I street, formerly occupied by Secretary Browning, opposite Franklin Square, and expects to have it ready for occupancy by the time Congress meets. Mr. Catacazy's furniture, carriages, &c., are now en route from Paris, and it is understood that he intends to entertain handsomely during the coming season."

An obscure evening paper undertakes to say that it is going to probe into Mr. Corbin's gold operations, because he is sick. It has no words of compassion, however, for the victims of Corbin's gold conspiracy—the merchants and importers, and hard-working servant girls sending money to their friends across the ocean, all of whom he made to pay twice as much premium as they ought to for gold and exchange. Nor does it mention the multitudes ruined in the great financial panic occasioned. "Pity is a fine virtue, but it ought not to be wasted on unworthy objects."—N. Y. Sun.

As so large a number of visitors, are expected in the city during the Fair week, the Committee of Arrangements, desire to take steps looking toward the comfortable accommodation of all, in case our hotels and private boarding houses should be so crowded as to be unable to offer the necessary accommodations. Therefore, J. J. Litchford Esq., in behalf of the Committee, will during this week, wait on heads of families, with a view of ascertaining to what extent arrangements can be made for the reception of boarders into private families, during said week.

Parties who are willing to enter into an arrangement of this kind, would greatly facilitate matters, by reporting to Mr. Litchford, stating terms &c., &c.

A fight occurred at a church in Barnwell, on Saturday night last. An intoxicated darkey came into the church and used profane language, and being remonstrated with, drew his knife, when he was knocked down by a stick in the hands of another colored man. The church presented an excited scene during the melee.

BRON.—Two more individuals have had their say on the Byron scandal.

George Francis Train observes that Mrs. Stowe went for Fame, and got infamy; and that since her failure he has stopped writing up his book to prove that General Washington was the father of several of his aunt's children.

And Martin F. Tupper, the Bore of the Century, has written a defense of the poet, and calls it "A Lance for Byron." Worst of all, it commences, "One tilt in charity."

Much excitement prevails in Craig county, Virginia, in consequence of the visit of the two Germans who own such an extensive tract of land in Botetourt and that county. It is estimated that the number of acres claimed by them is much larger than heretofore announced—30,000 acres, some placing it as high as 125,000. Should such be the case, a large number of persons will lose farms on which they and their ancestors have been living for at least sixty years, and which they believe properly belonged to themselves.

MILL POND AND CHANNEL OYSTERS.

After the 1st of November it is proposed to furnish these oysters, either in the shell or opened, in quantities to suit purchasers and at the lowest market prices.

The Mill Pond Oyster supplied will be the celebrated

GULLA ISLAND OYSTER

CHEERING SUCCESS.
LARGE DIVIDEND OF IN-SURANCE.
The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.
on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policy at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.
The dividend could have safely been larger, but with this which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.
The company is now only in the eighth month of its active operation—yet
HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America, Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED
PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS AND GAS BURNERS.
For Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best fire-place heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and charm of an open grate fire, but are from ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, AND RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.
We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for heating and cooking. We have stoves to take in long and small, and with large ovens, and are superior stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves.
Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—making of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quasily and equally well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.
Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
